EXINI Diagnostics AB take the next step on the UK market by signing a distribution agreement with Imaging Equipment Limited.

The agreement gives Imaging equipment Limited (IEL) the rights to sell and market EXINI's products in UK and Ireland via their own sales organization. IEL is also dealers of a wide range of products within nuclear medicine.

-The agreement gives EXINI a strong collaborative partner with the right competence and many years' experience within sale of nuclear medicine products to hospitals in one of Europe's big markets, says Magnus Aurell, CEO of EXINI.
